DECLARATION OF SERVICE OF DEFAULT PAPERS ON DEFENDANT TIMOTHY M. EVANS

The undersigned, Ashley J. Burden, as counsel for Plaintiff Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC”), hereby declare as follows, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

1. On August 11, 2022, Plaintiff CFTC filed a motion for entry of default by the Clerk against Defendant Timothy M. Evans in the above-captioned matter, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a). (Doc. 108.)

2. The Court set a telephonic hearing for August 30, 2022, and ordered the CFTC to serve the default papers upon Defendant Evans in the same manner as the Complaint, i.e., via email, and UPS to Evans’s last-known address in Tulum, Mexico. (Doc. 109; see also Doc. 90 (granting the CFTC’s motion for alternative service on Evans).)

3. On August 11, 2022, the undersigned emailed electronic copies of the default papers to Evans. (See Ex. A, Emails from A. Burden to T. Evans.) They did not “bound back,” and appear to have been delivered.

4. The undersigned also caused the default papers to be sent to Evans via UPS to his last-known address. Delivery is currently scheduled for August 18. (Ex. B, UPS Tracking Receipts.)

5. The CFTC has not received any response from Defendant Evans.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
